JOINT MOTION TO CONSOLIDATE CASES

Plaintiff XR Communications, LLC dba Vivato Technologies (“Plaintiff”) and Defendants AT&T Corp., AT&T Mobility LLC, and AT&T Services, Inc. (AT&T”), Verizon Communications, Inc. and Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless (“Verizon”), T-Mobile USA, Inc. (“T-Mobile”), and Intervenor Ericsson Inc. (“Ericsson”) and Nokia of America Corporation (“Nokia”) (collectively, “Defendants/Intervenor”) respectfully request that the Court consolidate for pre-trial the above-captioned lead case (2:23-cv-00202) and associated member cases (2:23-cv-00203 and 2:23-cv-00204) with the follow-on lead case (2:23-cv-00470), and associated member cases (2:23-cv-00468 and 2:23-cv-00469) and put all six cases on the same schedule as set forth in Case No. 2:23-cv-00470, at Dkt. No. 41, with the additional of several deadlines requested below. Likewise, the parties request that the two cases against each carrier (e.g., Civil Action Nos. 2:23-cv-00203-JRG-RSP and 2:23-CV-00470-JRG for Verizon) be consolidated for trial. The result of this motion will be one consolidated case for pretrial (rather than two) and three consolidated cases for trial (rather than six).

This request is made jointly by Plaintiff, Defendants, and Intervenor and, as shown further below, is not made for the purposes of delay, but rather to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of these several actions.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

These cases span six actions brought by Plaintiff, two each against Defendants AT&T, T-Mobile, and Verizon. Plaintiff filed the first set of three cases on May 8, 2023, alleging in individual actions (“XR1 cases”) that each of AT&T, T-Mobile, and Verizon infringe five patents. The Court sua sponte consolidated for pretrial the below cases, and the lead case is 2:23-cv-00202.

XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. AT&T Services Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00202 (Lead)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. Verizon Communications, Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00203 (Member)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. T-Mobile USA, Inc.	Case No. 2:23-cv-00204 (Member)

The operative DCO for the XR1 cases is attached hereto as Ex. A.

On October 4, 2023, XR filed a second set of cases (“XR2 cases”), again alleging in individual actions that each of AT&T, T-Mobile, and Verizon infringe two patents, both of which are in the same family as U.S. Patent No. 10,715,235 that is at issue in the XR1 cases. The Court sua sponte consolidated the XR2 cases, and the lead case is 2:23-cv-00470.

XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. Verizon Communications, Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00470 (Lead)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. AT&T Services Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00468 (Member)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. T-Mobile USA, Inc.	Case No. 2:23-cv-00469 (Member)

The operative DCO in the XR2 cases is attached hereto as Ex. B. The following table summarizes certain key dates from the DCO in both cases.

Event	Date (No. 2:23-cv-00202)	Date (No. 2:23-cv-00470)
Jury Selection	March 3, 2025	July 21, 2025
Pretrial Conference	January 27, 2025	June 16, 2025
File Dispositive Motions and Motions to Strike Expert Testimony	November 25, 2024	April 14, 2025
Deadline to Complete Fact Discovery and File Motions to Compel	October 4, 2024	February 25, 2025
Claim Construction Hearing	September 11, 2024	February 4, 2025

II. ARGUMENT AND CITATIONS TO AUTHORITY

The Parties have diligently litigated both sets of cases and have cooperatively engaged in discovery without the Court's involvement to date. By virtue of engaging in those efforts, the Parties have determined that the overlap in the asserted patents, accused products, and knowledgeable witnesses (from both the Parties and third parties) is overwhelming. For example, recent third-party and party deposition notices have crystallized the overlapping issues in both cases, and as a result, the Parties have determined that the time spent and resources used of the Court and the Parties will be meaningfully decreased by consolidating the XR1 cases with the XR2 cases.

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42 and the Court's inherent authority to efficiently manage its docket, the Parties request that the Court enter an order consolidating the XR1 cases into the XR2 cases, such that the remaining cases are:

XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. Verizon Communications, Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00470 (Lead)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. AT&T Services Inc., et al	Case No. 2:23-cv-00468 (Member)
XR Communications LLC dba Vivato Technologies v. T-Mobile USA, Inc.	Case No. 2:23-cv-00469 (Member)

The result of such a consolidation would be that the six cases would proceed through pretrial under a single lead case number (instead of two), and the individual cases would decrease to three (from six). As is the case now, the newly-consolidated case would continue to remain consolidated for pretrial purposes, just with all future deadlines proceeding under the schedule set forth in the XR2 case, Dkt. 41 (Ex. B). Consolidation in the manner requested would also minimize the burden on the Court and potential jurors, as it would reduce the number of potential trials from six (i.e., one for each Defendant in each of XR1 and XR2) to no more than three (i.e., one for each Defendant involving all six remaining patents-in-suit).

The Parties respectfully request that the Court vacate the deadlines in the XR1 case and adopt the XR2 case schedule. To further reduce the burden on the Court and the Parties, the Parties have additionally reached the following agreements to apply upon consolidation. First, the Parties have agreed that any further claim construction proceedings (if any are required) will be limited to issues specific to the XR2 patents, and will not retread issues that were already addressed at the Markman Hearing on September 11, 2024 regarding the XR1 patents.

Second, to ensure that all Parties continue to engage in the efficient and cooperative discovery procedures as evidenced to date, and to further ensure that the parties work to streamline the remaining claims and defenses in the most efficient manner possible, the Parties have agreed to reduce by a significant amount the discovery that would otherwise be called for under the current Discovery Orders in both cases. Specifically, the Parties have agreed that (i) all prior deposition transcripts of Plaintiff's Rule 30(b)(6) witnesses, inventors, or prosecution counsel (including, without limitation, Mssrs. Chraplyvy, Hansen, Chaffee, Brennan, Eidson, and the various prosecution counsel deponents, including Mssrs. Haycox, Ambrose, Brooks, Schwedler, and Burke) can be used as if taken in this case; (ii) to the extent follow up depositions of the foregoing witnesses are necessary, they will be collectively limited to 14 hours and questioning will not repeat issues addressed in earlier depositions; and (iii) the limits in the Discovery Order in XR1 will otherwise apply to the consolidated action.

Additionally, the Parties further request that the Court add the following additional deadlines to the XR2 docket control order:

- Deadline by which the Parties are to serve all respective corporate and individual deposition notices; and

- Deadlines to narrow claims and prior art references after the close of fact discovery.

These modifications are intended to ensure that the cases continue to proceed in an orderly and efficient fashion.

Overall, consolidation of the XR1 cases into the XR2 cases will serve to reduce the burden on the Parties and the Court and ensure that the entirety of the dispute proceeds together. A proposed schedule—i.e., the current XR2 case schedule, as modified to include these additional party-agreed interim deadlines—is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The requested consolidation is not intended to prejudice any Party's right to later advocate for a particular timing, order, or grouping of trials for the individual cases.

The Parties have conferred on this request, and they agree to the requested relief.
